MARIA BIVENS (It's So Floppy)

Maria has owned and shown bassets for 27 years. In that time, she has bred owned or co owned over 20 champions and also titled some in obedience, tracking and scentwork and has also taken part in Agility. She is a trainer and competitor in field trials and believes that dogs need the correct conformation and temperament when it comes to taking part in competition of any sort. She is an advocate for health testing prior to any mating to highlight any possible problems. In the early 2000's she teamed up with Malisa Martinez of the 'It's So Floppy' kennels in Argentina and now shares the kennel name. She has judged in various parts of America but her most memorable appointment however was the Open Show she judged for the Basset Hound Club in the UK a few years ago. Her supportive husband encourages her in their hobby, and she has been to Crufts on several occasions and to other countries to visit the Basset Specialities including Australia in 2001 when she judged for the Basset Hound Club of NSW invited by the late great Janet Beckman, a much respected figure in the breed. Her other hobby is photography, and she can often be found ringside taking pictures from ground level. Maria also works in the family business which makes recognition, promotional items, and awards. Her company was tasked with making the medallions for the Friendship Cup that was donated by the Basset Hound Club of Scotland to the Basset Hound Club of America and in doing so, she had a hand in creating our current logo. She is looking forward to meeting friends old and new and visiting Scotland. Let's make her welcome!

DIANNE REID. (Maudaxi)

Dianne is doing our Special Awards Classes. Brought up with dachshunds in the North East, after marriage she moved south and branched into Gbgv and Pbgv where she has had considerable success in breeding and showing. She has already judged bassets in the UK but this will be her first time in Scotland. Please support these classes – they are important in helping new breed judges progress.
