Docked & Natural Tailed Dogs Welcome

Firstly I would like to introduce myself—Mick Svaljek. I have been involved with dogs all my life; my earliest recollection goes back to my childhood days, owning German Shepherd Dogs from the time that I can remember. My involvement with showing and breeding dogs began in 1990 when I first was introduced to Rottweilers by friends that were breeding them. In 1994 I registered the Kennel prefix Svawill Rottweilers, and have bred many ANKC Australian Champions, BISS and Multi winning dogs in the Specialty arena. I have been past President of the Rottweiler Club of Victoria and club member for the last 25 years. I have judged both Rottweilers and Utility Group all around the world, the highlight being appointed to judge at the International Friends of the Rottweiler World Dog Show 2013 in Denmark.

Good luck to all Exhibitors.

Yours Sincerely

Mick Svaljek

JUNIOR HANDLER INFORMATION

The purpose of the Junior Handler (JH) classes is to educate and give the young people of our sport a chance to learn more about their dogs and to practice and see their handling skills in a new and exciting venue and point of view. Judging is on the presentation and basic age-appropriate knowledge of the breed. The quality of the dog is not decisive.

1. JH will compete in two age categories and must compete in the class category based on the junior's age on the day of the show.
 - a. Young Junior Handler Class: 10 to under 14 years, and
 - b. Youth Junior Handler Class: 14 to under 17 years.
2. The dog of the JH need not be entered to exhibit in the show however it be must registered by the AKC or FCI recognized country kennel club and not younger than 12 months old.

3. There will be one first place winner awarded in each age division. The two winners will not compete against each other.
4. Juniors in the class will receive a critique on their handling ability and award of participation.
5. Points the JH Judge will consider:
 - a. Good contact and relationship with the dog;
 - b. Attention to Judge's directions;
 - c. Showing the dog's teeth;
 - d. Use of ring and good tempo and control when moving dog;
 - e. Offering a comprehensive view of the dog to the Judge (don't stand between dog and judge);
 - f. Ability to handle possible problems with the dog in a show ring environment; and
 - g. Sportsmanship toward the other exhibitor and spectators.

CONFORMATION SHOW INFORMATION

1. Fur saver collars only.
2. With the exception of the Kennel Group, Stud Dog, Brood Bitch, and Junior Handler classes, no dog may be entered in more than one class.
3. If a dog is eligible for more than one class, the owner may determine which class the dog may be entered.
4. Once a dog is eligible for the Champion or Gebrauchshunde class, the dog may not enter any other class except those stated in #1 above and Veterans, age permitting.
5. Copies of documentation for the Champion, Working, Gebrauchshunde and NA Independent Sieger/ Siegerin classes must accompany the entry form.
6. Entries which do not have the required documentation on file at check-in will be moved to the Open class and may receive a critique but will not be eligible for class placement.

8. If a dog is entered in more than one class, a separate entry form must be completed for each class.
9. In case of an error in regard to age on the entry form, those in the puppy classes or youth classes will be moved to the appropriate age class; however, the show secretary must be notified at least ½ hour prior to the start of that day's judging.
10. Any individual who is currently suspended from participating in AKC or FCI events will not be eligible to enter or show any dogs, including those owned or co-owned by that individual, in an ARC Sieger Show.
11. The use of bite sleeves and/or agitation for protection training is forbidden on hotel and show grounds unless it is specific to an activity that is hosted by ARC.
12. Regardless of documentation, dogs with missing teeth (other than allowed by the current AKC standard) will be considered a disqualification at an ARC Sieger Show. Broken teeth, still visible in the mouth, will be evaluated at the judge's discretion.

RING PROCEDURE and GUIDELINES

1. The ring steward will call all entries to the class. Absentees are marked in the catalog. The ring stewards and show secretary will keep a marked catalog or Judges Check-In Sheet.
2. All exhibits are presented in a natural stance; no hand-stacking is permissible in any class.

3. "Free stacking" may be used to present the dog using a small toy or ball.
4. Food may not be used for baiting the dog and is not allowed either inside or outside the ring.
5. After the initial examination for dentition and disqualifying faults, a verbal critique is conducted on each class entry and recorded verbatim on the critique form. Positive aspects as well as any faults or deviations from the standard are noted on the critique, such as any missing teeth, pink gums, light eyes, etc.
6. For Rottweilers born in countries where docking is forbidden by law or where a breeder has chosen not to dock, the tail may be left in its natural condition.
7. The tail on natural-tailed dogs will be critiqued using the FCI Standard for the Rottweiler.
8. There will be no judging preference between docked and natural tailed dogs.
9. Once all exhibits are critiqued, the judge will gait (run) each class for ratings and placements.
10. Dogs will be run long enough to allow the judge to completely evaluate gait and structure.
11. Changing runners and double handling from outside of the ring is encouraged.
12. During the gaiting process, the judge at his/her discretion may rate an exhibit and declare, "No further judging is required".
13. All remaining exhibits in each class are evaluated for final rating and placement. Placements are first through fourth place with a corresponding rating.
14. The ring steward will mark all placements and ratings in the show catalog or Judges Check-In Sheet before dismissing the class. The judge, when time permits, will sign the critiques after the ratings and placements. The club will retain a copy of all critiques.
